

Appendix 1 to the Scheme of Delegation

Table of Roles and Responsibilities

Responsibilities of the Diocesan Bishop and the Diocesan Education Service

Canon law (Church law) provides that each diocesan bishop has strategic responsibility to commission sufficient school places to meet the needs of baptised Catholic children resident in his area. A Catholic school is one which is recognised as such by the diocesan bishop. Canon 803 provides the definition of a Catholic school. Canon 803§1 provides that a school is Catholic if:

- (a) It is controlled¹ by a diocese or religious order; or
- (b) It is acknowledged in a written document as Catholic by the diocesan bishop.

All Catholic schools are subject to the jurisdiction of the diocesan bishop, even those that are not in diocesan trusteeship. Canon 806§1 provides:

“The Diocesan Bishop has the right to watch over and inspect Catholic schools in his territory...and has the right to issue directives concerning the general inspection of Catholic schools...those who are in charge of Catholic schools are to ensure, under the supervision of the local Ordinary², that the formation given in them, including its academic standards, are at least as outstanding as that in other schools in the area”.

In respect of his schools, which includes academies, the bishop has the legal right to appoint (and remove) an overall majority of directors and governors, who are known as foundation directors and foundation governors. In addition to all the other legal responsibilities of the academy trust company (for academies) and the governing body (for voluntary aided schools), the law recognises that foundation directors/governors are appointed specifically to ensure:

- That the Catholic character of the school is preserved;
- That the school is conducted in accordance with its trust deed; and
- That the religious education curriculum is in accordance with the bishop’s policy for his diocese, based on the Bishops’ Conference Curriculum Directory.

The diocesan bishop, acting through his Diocesan Schools Commissioner, is responsible for:

¹ The ‘control’ specified in canon 803 is normally established where the diocese or religious order owns the school and appoints the governing body (or at least a majority of it).

² ‘Ordinary’ includes the Diocesan Bishop and those, such as Vicars General and Episcopal Vicars, exercising Ordinary jurisdiction on his behalf as well as to describe the relevant Religious Superior in respect of religious order schools, and this also includes their respective representative officers.

- The provision and future development of excellent Catholic education throughout the diocese
- The oversight of high educational standards, progress and outcomes in all diocesan schools
- The appointment, development and training of foundation directors and governors and their removal
- The inspection of religious life of schools and RE (section 48 inspections)
- The development of Catholic teachers and leaders (and all appointments should be made in accordance with diocesan protocol)
- The oversight of school buildings/estate and capital projects
- Planning of school place provision
- Engaging with the RSC and Ofsted
- Maintaining links with the Catholic Education Service and the government

The CES model Scheme of Delegation, more particularly this table at Appendix I, is modelled on a 'traditional' multi-academy trust structure. 'Traditional' for the purposes of this document is used to describe a situation where there is substantial delegation to the local governing body level to make decisions, although such decisions must be in line with the overall strategic vision set by the directors. The model does, however, provide for certain functions to be undertaken by a senior executive leadership team. By comparison, some multi-academy trust companies will delegate very little to their local governing bodies and will retain all decision-making powers and/or delegate to a senior executive leadership team. It is envisaged that the bigger the multi-academy trust company, the larger the senior executive leadership team will be and, as such, the board of directors will delegate to the senior executive leadership team and not down to the academy level. This model would leave the local governing body free to concentrate on such things as educational standards at the academy and community relations.

In any event, the optimum structure, regardless of size or composition of the multi-academy trust company is for each 'layer' of the governance structure (being the board of directors, the senior executive leadership, any regional boards or hubs³, the local governing bodies and the headteachers as may be

³ As a multi-academy trust company grows and accepts additional academies, the 'traditional' governance structure may no longer be fit for purpose, particularly because the level of information being produced for review and action by the directors may be too in-depth and require significant amounts of time and expertise to get to the headline information. In such a case, it is expected that the multi-academy trust company will look at ways of addressing this by altering its governance structure. Often this is done by introducing regional hubs so that the academies in the multi-academy trust company are split into, for example, geographical groupings. Each grouping may then have a regional board that would sit between the local governing body of each academy and the senior executive leadership and whose function it would be to assist and support each LGB but also to collate information and statistics, to analyse the same across the region and to report that back in an accessible format to the senior executive leadership for further dissemination as appropriate to the board of directors. Another foreseeable structural change may be to have one LGB across two or more schools; this is particularly relevant where there is an executive headteacher over more than one academy in the multi-academy trust company. It is possible that in such a case, two or more LGBS will be duplicating efforts and it may be more efficient and cost-effective for one LGB to be constituted across the academies.

Holy Family Catholic Multi Academy Trust appropriate) feeds into the layer above so that the board of directors is free to carry out its strategic functions and is not involved in the operational or day to day aspects of running the academies within the multi academy trust company.

It is envisaged that the CES will be producing additional tables for Appendix I to reflect different governance structures as it becomes apparent that such structures are considered a successful model for governing a multi-academy trust company.

Explanation of the layers of governance in a 'traditional' Multi-Academy Trust Company structure

Members:

- ☒ Guardians of the governance of the Multi-Academy Trust Company
- ☒ Accountable to the Bishop (unless the Member is the Bishop)
- ☒ Signatories to the Memorandum and Articles of Association
- ☒ Akin to shareholders

Directors:

- ☒ Company Directors and Charity Trustees
- ☒ Accountable to the Members and the Bishop
- ☒ Duty to uphold the Multi-Academy Trust Company's objects and to comply with any directives, advice and/or guidance issued by the Bishop
- ☒ Responsible for preserving and developing the Multi-Academy Trust Company's Catholic character at all times, and this overriding duty (which is also a legal duty) should permeate everything that the Directors do.
- ☒ Responsible for the general control and management of the administration of the Multi-Academy Trust Company and for delivering the three core functions
- ☒ Responsible for standards of education in the academies within the Multi-Academy Trust Company
- ☒ Delegate functions to sub-committees, senior executive leadership, LGBs, and Principals/Headteachers
- ☒ Appoint the senior executive leadership

Senior executive leadership:

- Appointed by the Board of Directors and employed by the Multi-Academy Trust Company
- Expectation that this will include a senior executive, for example a CEO, if appropriate depending on the size and stage of development of the multi-academy trust company
- Responsible for 'operations' and for delivering the Board's vision and ethos – the 'professional leaders'
- Responsible for the Multi-Academy Trust Company's financial effectiveness and stability and for ensuring value for money
- Assist in the performance management of the Principals/Headteachers

LGB Governors:

- ☐ Appointed/elected to govern a specific academy within the Multi-Academy Trust Company in accordance with the Scheme of Delegation
- ☐ Have oversight of one academy in the multi-academy trust company and are accountable to the board of Directors of the multi-academy trust company
- ☐ Vital link to the local community

Principal/Headteacher:

- ☐ Responsible for day to day management of the Academy (or academies in an executive headship type arrangement)
- ☐ Responsible for performance management of staff excluding those staff whose performance is managed by the Directors, a committee of the Directors, the senior executive leadership, the LGB or a committee thereof.

KEY:

ND: means non-delegable

Notes to assist in reading this table

It is envisaged that, where the senior executive leadership have been delegated responsibility by the board of directors, an appropriate member of the senior executive leadership will take the lead based on their qualifications, expertise, skills, experience and/or availability (it should be noted that the term ‘senior executive leadership’ can mean one person or a group of people). There is an expectation that there will be one person on the senior executive leadership team who will lead and assume accountability for decisions taken by the team e.g. a CEO type figure.

In all that the multi-academy trust company does, it should ensure that any diocesan policy, procedure, protocol or guidance is reflected and followed, including by the academies within the multi-academy trust company.

In this table, the term ‘company’ shall mean the multi-academy trust company’.

In this table, the term ‘headteacher’ shall mean the principal or headteacher employed in the academy and reference to ‘headteachers’ shall mean each of the headteachers employed in each of the academies in the company.
